Meet the Cast and Crew of Enchanted Sleeping Beauty

Danny Adams is well known to Rose Hill audiences, having performed as the Emperor in the Emperor's Nightingale, and Director for The Pale Pink Dragon, Hansel and Gretel, Aladdin, The Wizard of Oz, The Velveteen Rabbit, Jackie and the Giant, The Little Mermaid, Cinderella's Glass Slipper, The Jungle Book, and Oz! He considers the ROSE HILL PLAYERS his "family" and gets great joy watching his actors live, learn, and love. Danny's dream was to become a third grade teacher and we are fortunate that he has made Rose Hill his home. Danny is the Youth Director at VA Hills Baptist Church, and loves fishing, collecting autographs, old toys and "Lost in Space". Danny extends special thanks to Terri Czarniak, Sue Reynolds, and Sally Schimmel.

Monica Alicea joins the cast of Enchanted Sleeping Beauty as a townsperson. This is her second play, after appearing in Oz! last year. This third grader says she's having a lot of fun and enjoys being on stage. The play allows her to make new friends and learn new things. Monica is involved in other activities as well, such as ballet, jazz, soccer, and reading. She thanks her family and friends for being so supportive.

Nicole Askenazy is a spider in her first play at Rose Hill. She likes the dancing and singing involved with being in the play and the opportunities to make new friends. This first grader also enjoys ice-skating, reading and playing tennis. She thanks her family, Mr. Adams and the crew.

Kindergartener Joshua Ball portrays a spider in his first Rose Hill play. Joshua thinks being in the play is great and likes being on stage. He enjoys learning martial arts when he is not in school or on stage and would like to thank Mr. Adams and all the parents.

A seventh grader at Mark Twain Middle School, Stephen Barnett, returned this year as Assistant Stage Manager. Stephen says that being in the play "feels like a second home and everybody is like my family." He enjoys the game room, playing basketball, and the step team. He thanks Mr. Adams, Mrs. Reynolds, and all the cast members.

Anna Bishop, appearing as Princess Briar-Rose, is one of several pairs of siblings in Enchanted Sleeping Beauty. She is a sixth grader who has also appeared in The Jungle Book and Oz! Anna is a part of Sound Waves 12 and loves playing soccer. She would like to thank Julia Zukowski for helping her with her choreography. She is also grateful to her Aunt Kit, her mom and dad, and Carly.

Like her sister, Carly Bishop plays soccer and is participating in her third play. Carly is a fourth grader who enjoys being a Girl Scout. She is having fun being a townsperson, but especially enjoys helping Jordan and Mr. Adams as a stagehand. She thanks her Aunt Kit for helping with the props, her Mom and Dad for helping with the play, and Mrs. Contardi for all that she does.

Tyrinn E.A. Boyd, is a third grader appearing in her first Rose Hill play. She really likes singing and dancing. Tyrinn plays soccer and enjoys cheerleading, drawing, playing board games, and playing video games. She thanks Mr. Adams for giving her the opportunity, and her Mom and Dad and her big brother, Timothy!

Fourth grader Ella Brewer, is the Orange Witch, in her second Rose Hill Players production. She says the best part of being in the play is "hanging out and seeing my friends," but also likes being on stage and the choreography. When not at school, she is active in dance and soccer. Ella thanks everyone.

Eric Christian-Escamilla is a kindergartener who likes to audition and is having fun showing all the people how to crawl like a spider. Eric enjoys many activities, including soccer, basketball, swimming, Lego Star Wars, dinosaurs, and playing outside. He would like to thank his Mommy, Daddy, Alec, Iaia and Avi Paul and Avi Josep.

Part of another sibling pair, veteran Courtney Contardi is sharing the stage with her sister. Courtney is a fourth grader, a Girl Scout, and a soccer player who likes playing with her many friends. She enjoys acting and helping with the play. Courtney also plays the piano and is part of Awanas. She thanks Mr. Adams, her Mom and Dad, friends, teachers, and her sister, Hannah, and brother, Jeremy.

Second-grader Hannah Contardi is in her third Rose Hill play as a townsperson. She likes to audition with her friends and come to rehearsals. Hannah plays piano and soccer and is active in Brownie Troop #865, Odyssey of the Mind, and Awanas. She thanks "Mr. Adams for being the Director and making the plays fun, Ms. Sally for teaching her all the songs, and Mommy for being my mommy."

Another veteran, Marcia Cunning says the whole experience is amazing! Marcia loves everything about the play—being on stage, meeting new people, becoming friends, and wearing costumes. Also part of Sound Waves 12, Marcia thanks her family for supporting her, especially her Mom, Dad, Kelsey, and Danielle. She also thanks her friends, Kathleen, Lindsey, Jennifer, and Adriane. Most of all, she thanks Mr. Adams and all the people who help put together the play.

Bella Curtis is a first grader appearing in her first Rose Hill play. Bella says the play is really fun and she is looking forward to being on stage in front of a lot of people. She does gymnastics and is also a Brownie who takes art lessons. Bella wants to thank the PTA for having such a great program. She also wants to thank her Mommy and Daddy and Gunner for coming to see it so many times.

Third grader Clara Eckert was previously in The Jungle Book. Clara is a Girl Scout who also plays the piano and does gymnastics. She likes to be with other people and make new friends. She also likes to perform in front of crowds. She thanks her Mom and Dad for their support.

The Green Witch is played by Victoria El'Azar, in her first Rose Hill performance. Victoria is a fifth grader who likes acting and meeting up with her friends. She also enjoys singing and dancing. She is active in CCD, and is hoping to play volleyball and soccer in the summer. She thanks her parents for giving her the courage to audition!

Caleb Elliott is a sixth grader portraying Prince Alexander in his second Rose Hill production. He really likes acting and enjoys the feeling of being in front of people pretending to be someone else. Caleb is a member of Sound Waves 12 and plays the guitar. He would like to thank Mike for helping choreograph the sword fight with Jose and the duet with Anna. He would also like to thank Mrs. Evans for helping him learn his duet and solo. He sends a huge thank you to his mother for picking him up from practice everyday and helping him learn his lines in the beginning. Caleb also says "Thank you to Mr. Adams for casting me as the prince and giving me this opportunity!"

Joey Elliott, Caleb's brother, is enjoying being a stagehand in his first Rose Hill play. This fourth grader likes helping out the younger actors. Outside of school, Joey enjoys skateboarding and playing video games with his friends. He thanks Mr. Adams for volunteering to do the play and for letting him be a part of the stage crew.

Kindergartener Rebecca Eskow is having so much fun being a spider in the play. She said she likes singing and dancing and enjoys being in the play with her friends. She especially likes making new friends that are older than her. Rebecca participates in Mad Science and likes soccer and swimming. She thanks Mr. Adams, Mrs. Schimmel, Mommy, Daddy, and Danielle.

Beth Evans continues as the music director/accompanist for the Rose Hill Players. Enchanted Sleeping Beauty is her fourth production. A vocal music teacher for Alexandria Public Schools, she also is the organist at St. Paul's in Haymarket where her husband, David, is the choir director. Beth loves the energy of the Rose Hill Players and is the mother of three daughters.

McKenzie Evans, daughter of Beth, is a fifth grader performing in her fourth play. She likes making new friends and acting with them. McKenzie is a Girl Scout and also participated in Odyssey of the Mind. She would like to thank Mr. Adams, her Mom, Jordan, and all the stagehands.

"Gardener" Cristian Flores likes the play because he can be with his friends and he likes to act. He also enjoys the costumes and makeup. Cristian performs in Mexican Dance, Sound Waves 12, and plays the guitar. He would like to thank Mr. Adams and his parents for giving him support.

Cristian's brother, Sebastian Flores, is appearing in his second production. He says it is fun because he gets to sing with his friends. He also plays the drums and performs in Mexican Dance. Sebastian thanks Mr. Adams and the PTA.

Kieran Flynn is a fourth grade student who has also appeared in The Jungle Book and Oz! Kieran likes being in the play because it gives him something to do after school. It not only gives him something to focus on, "it's also a nice feeling to be up on stage." He is especially thankful to his Mom for making many of the play costumes.

Playing the Dark Knight, Jose Fratti, likes being in the play because the characters are so interesting. He is a sixth grader who plays basketball and has also performed in church plays. Jose thanks his parents for supporting and encouraging him and Mr. Adams for letting him be in the play for the third time.

Second grader Carlos Fuentes has been appearing on stage since he was in kindergarten. He really likes being on stage and singing with his friends. When not in school, Carlos enjoys soccer. He thanks Mr. Adams, Mrs. Moller, and the PTA.

Carlos' brother, Albert Fuentes, is a fifth grader appearing as the Prime Minister in his third Rose Hill play. He really likes acting and how people enjoy what he does. Albert would like to play lacrosse. He thanks Mr. Adams and all those who have helped on the play, but especially his Dad!!

The best thing about being in the play is getting to act and having fun, says townsperson Caroline Gerke. She swims, dances, and goes to CCD when she isn't at Rose Hill. Caroline is in Ms. Torrence's class and really wants to thank Mr. Adams for directing the play.

Lizel Gonzalez returns to Rose Hill from Mark Twain Middle School to be an Assistant Stage Manager. She is taking a drama class in seventh grade. Liz thinks Sleeping Beauty is a great experience. She is committed to doing her best. Lizel enjoys helping the actors learn their parts and seeing how the play is put together. She thanks Jordan, Mr. Adams, and her Mom.

First grader Abby Harris appears with her sister in Enchanted Sleeping Beauty. She thinks being in the play is a lot of fun, and is enjoying being a spider. Abby takes karate lessons when she is not at Rose Hill and would like to thank Mr. Adams and her sister, Megan, for helping her be comfortable as cast member.

Megan Harris is playing the False Princess in her second Rose Hill production. She enjoys making new friends and learning about drama. This fourth grader is active in Girl Scouts, basketball, choir, and plays the double string bass. Megan would like to thank Mr. Adams, her baby sitter, and her parents.

Veteran Nathaniel Holic has his first speaking role as the Head Spider in his fifth Rose Hill production. This fourth grader enjoys acting, meeting other people, learning, and having fun. He also loves football, soccer, and swimming. Nathaniel thanks his Mom and Dad for driving him to practice and for being willing to help with the play.

Third grader Carmen Honker performs as a townsperson in her third Rose Hill play. She likes the play because you get to make new friends. Carmen enjoys dance and piano when she is not in school. She would like to thank her Mom, Dad, and Mr. Adams for telling her she could do a good job.

Grecia Hurtado appears in her first production as a townsperson. The third grader thinks the play is a chance to work with other people and is thankful to Mr. Adams for letting her be in the play. Grecia also plays soccer.

Shelby Kaufman is a second grader in her second Rose Hill production. She enjoys singing and dancing with the actors and actresses from her school. Shelby loves to play soccer and enjoys being a Girl Scout, but most of she loves to be with her friends. She thanks Mr. Adams and Mrs. Reynolds, but especially wants to thank her Mom for her help.

Debuting in her first Rose Hill production is first grader Clara Kim. She thinks the play is really funny and especially loves watching the mean witch perform. Clara also thinks it is fun to pretend to be a spider and would like to thank Mr. Adams and Mrs. Schimmel for their help.

Kindergartener Judy Kovatch is in her first Rose Hill performance as a spider. She really likes being with her friends that are also in the play. She is a student in Ms. Sullivan's class who loves to play hide-and-go-seek, and takes tap and ballet lessons.

Stagehand Nicole Kuhn is a veteran of the Rose Hill Players. She likes handling the props and enjoys being a stagehand because she helps make the play happen. This fourth grader plays the electric guitar, is a Girl Scout and also plays soccer. She thanks her Mom, her Dad, her sister and Mr. Adams.

Playing the Baroness in her third Rose Hill production, Jeeyoon Lee is a fourth grader who is thrilled she is in Enchanted Sleeping Beauty. She loves singing and acting and she used to take guitar, piano, pottery, swimming, and ballet lessons (a lot!). Jeeyoon thanks her parents, her friends, and Mr. Adams.

Sixth Grader Richard LeGrande appears in his first Rose Hill production as King Rudolph. The play gives him the opportunity to meet new people and see how they react to the parts. He is having fun and gets to see people he does not see regularly in school. Richard plays football and basketball. Richard would like to thank his family for allowing him to be in the play, picking him up from practice, making snacks, and helping him with his lines. He also would like to thank Mr. Adams and the teachers for believing in him and thanks the cast and crew as well.

Emylia Love Loaiza is thrilled to be in her first play and have the opportunity to become famous. This fourth grader likes acting and wearing costumes with make up. She has fun being with her friends and encouraging them, but most of all, she loves being in the play with her sister Iliana. Appearing as the Blue Witch, Emylia also plays the piano and the cello and is a Girl Scout. She thanks Mr. Adams, Mike, and her Mom and Dad for their encouragement.

Second grader Iliana Loaiza is a townsperson in her first Rose Hill production. She loves wearing costumes and having rehearsals with her friends. She also likes having her sister, Emylia, with her in the play. Iliana is a Girl Scout, takes piano lessons, and participates in church activities. She would like to thank Mr. Adams for choosing her to be in the play and for being very nice. She also wants to thank the people who make the costumes!!

Alexander Long is thrilled to be in his second play following The Jungle Book. The second grader thinks that the fun part of being in the play is to watch every scene magically fit together. He is thankful to Mr. Adams for putting the play together and for picking him as a cast member. He would like to also thank his drama camp instructor for teaching him some important acting skills. Thanks also go to his Dad for taking him to the audition and for his Mom for all of her help. Alexander enjoys baseball and ice-skating and was also a participant in Odyssey of the Mind.

First grader Aileen Martinez is performing as a spider in her first Rose Hill play. She likes the fact that she gets to see her friends that are not in her classroom while practicing and rehearsing. Aileen is thankful to Mr. Adams for letting her be in the play and to her Mom for taking her to rehearsal. She also likes her sister, Mandy, very much!

Julie Martinez is in her first Rose Hill production as a townsperson. She enjoys being in the play because it is fun and you can make new friends. Ms. Torrence and Ms. Pond are her second grade teachers. Julie would like to thank Mr. Adams for having the play.

Kelly McConnell is debuting in her first Rose Hill play as Queen Eleanor. She likes making new friends, acting as a character, and the excitement of being on stage. And of course, she loves how awesome Mr. Adams is at directing! Kelly is a sixth grader who enjoys horseback riding and soccer and participates in Odyssey of the Mind and Girl Scouts. She thanks Mr. Adams, her Mommy, and the seamstresses.

Emma McDowell is part of another brother/sister duo performing in Enchanted Sleeping Beauty. Emma is a fourth grader playing the White Witch who is having fun at the play rehearsals. Emma plays hockey, takes piano lessons, and is a Girl Scout. She thanks all her friends for doing the play with her.

Kindergartener Ian McDowell likes being on stage and crawling around as a spider. When not in school, Ian plays hockey like his sister, but also plays T-ball. He would like to thank Mr. Adams "because he likes me."

Fourth grader Wendy Mendoza is a stagehand in her first Rose Hill play. Wendy enjoys being a part of the stage crew and helping to make the play happen. She especially wants to thank Mr. Adams for making her a stagehand and Mrs. Reynolds for giving her the information she needs.

First grader Madison Miller is returning to this year's production as a spider. She thinks the best part of the play is dressing up and being with her friends. Madison thanks her Mom and Dad for letting her participate in the play, and the judges who picked her to be part of the play.

Jennie Mills, a fourth grader in Ms. Harvey's class, is portraying Quill in this year's production. She likes acting and having a chance to be funny. When not in school, Jennie likes to play soccer, swim, and dance, make arts and crafts and sing in the choir. She thanks Mr. Adams, Mrs. Reynolds, and everyone else who is helping to put on the play this year.

Red Witch Alex Moller is appearing in her third Rose Hill play. Alex enjoys the play because she gets to act, sing and do what she loves. She also enjoys hanging out with her friends. When not at Rose Hill, she would like to play soccer. Alex would like to thank her friends, especially Samantha and Victoria for being there for her, and her family for helping and loving her.

Aria Moss, a kindergartener, likes trying something new, getting to hang out with her friends and making new friends, too. She is appearing as a spider but says her favorite part of being in the play is the singing. Aria enjoys many activities, including soccer, swimming, bike riding, and reading. Aria thanks her loving parents and little brother for supporting her and her acting endeavors. She also thanks Mr. Adams and everyone who worked tirelessly to make this production a success.

Making people laugh is what Francisco Nieves really enjoys about playing the emotional cook. He also likes singing and dancing in the play. Francisco is a fifth grade Boy Scout who plays baseball, football, and is on a swim team. He would like to thank Mr. Adams for his patience as he learns his part, Mrs. Evans for teaching him how to sing, and Mike for teaching him how to dance.

Francisco's sister, Isabel Nieves, performs in her second play as a townsperson. She thinks it is really fun to act and sing and enjoys making new friends in the play. Isabel is a Girl Scout Brownie and plays softball. She has also been learning the piano for three years. Isabel thanks Mr. Adams for allowing her to be in the play. She would also like to thank her Mum and Papi for their support.

Choreographer Mike Paige is an eleventh grader at Hayfield Secondary School who returned to help with his third Rose Hill show. Mike enjoys working with the Rose Hill Players and would like to thank Mr. Adams for his help and support.

Part of another sibling pair, Shelly Pagnella is enjoying playing a townsperson and thinks the play is a lot of fun. She especially likes the singing. When not at school, Shelly can be found making videos with her video camera. She thanks Mr. Adams and Mr. Mike.

Fifth grader Skyler Pagnella plays the Seamstress in her first Rose Hill production. She says the best part of the play is the dancing and singing. Skyler also takes Tae-Kwon-Do and loves to play outside in the backyard and ride her bike. She would like to thank Mr. Adams and her Ahma and Papa for their love and support.

Kaalie Price performed in Oz! last year and plays a townsperson this year. She likes making new friends and performing for others. Kaalie enjoys the church girls program "activity days" and Brownie Girl Scouts. She thanks Mr. Adams and all the other adults who help the cast learn their parts.

Sarah Price, a kindergartener, likes to pretend to be a spider and to meet new people. She thanks the people who helped her learn her songs and her Mom and sister, Nichole, for helping to make the spider costumes.

A fourth grader who plays soccer and is involved in Girl Scouts, Justine Purdy returns to the Rose Hill Players in her first speaking role as the Pink Witch. She enjoys seeing her friends at the play rehearsals and likes singing. Justine thanks her parents and her friends who encourage her to be the best she can be.

Veteran J.C. Reynolds plays the dual role of the Wall of Thorns and a townsperson. J.C. likes being in the play and meeting new friends. He thinks it is fun and especially enjoys it when people cheer him for doing a good job. When he is not in school, J.C. plays football, soccer, and lacrosse. He also likes to play with his neighborhood friends. He thanks Mr. Adams for “taking the time to be with us and putting up with us when we’re yelling.” He also thanks his sister, Jordan, “for stopping doing the other stuff that she likes and hanging out with us.”

Stage Manager Jordan Reynolds comes back to the Rose Hill Players as a seventh grader from Hayfield Secondary School. Jordan has lots of experience, having performed in 3 plays – The Jungle Book, Cinderella, and the Little Mermaid. Jordan chose to return because she can make new friends and also make old friendships stronger. Jordan plays Lacrosse and Volleyball for SYC. She thanks Mr. Adams for letting her help, and her Mom for bringing her to the practices.

Ariana Rivas performed in Oz! last year and returns to the stage this year as a spider. She really likes being on the stage with her friends. Ariana is a member of Brownie Girl Scout Troop #865. She would like to thank Mr. Adams for letting her be in the play and Miss Sally for helping her with the dance moves.

Fabi Saravia joins the Rose Hill Players as the Nursemaid. The sixth grader is having lots of fun with the play, likes the cast, and says she loves acting. She is thankful to all the volunteers who help out with the play.

Veteran Jeremy Schimmel has been in 5 other plays at Rose Hill. The sixth grader, who this year performs as the Cat, likes to act and meet new people. When not performing, Jeremy plays football and soccer. He thanks his Mom for supporting him, and Mr. Adams for encouraging him to do his best.

Choreographer Sally Schimmel is a preschool teacher who stays busy being a mom and taking her boys to their various activities. Sally has assisted in many Rose Hill productions and also performed the role of the stepmother in Cinderella. Sally really enjoys working with the children because they are full of energy and talent! She thanks Mr. Adams for allowing her to help with the play and her family for being supportive.

Third grader Andrea Serna is returning for her third Rose Hill performance. She likes the play because it is fun even though it is hard work. She enjoys singing, dancing, and just being on stage. Andrea also participates in Mexican Dance. She would especially like to thank her Mom, Mr. Adams, Mrs. Reynolds, Mrs. Schimmel, and Mike.

Kristina Serna, Andrea's fourth-grade sister, likes to sing and take gymnastics. She would like to thank her Mom, Dad, and sisters for their help and support.

Fourth grader Deja Thurman has grown from a pink monkey in The Jungle Book to Queen Samantha in Enchanted Sleeping Beauty. Deja likes getting to act and is having a great time working on the play. She is also a Girl Scout. Deja would like to thank her Mom for allowing her to be in this play. She would also like to thank Mr. Adams and her best friend, Sally.

Regan Tullis is a third grader appearing in her first Rose Hill production. She thought it would be fun and likes to be on stage performing. She is really happy she tried out and made the play. When not at Rose Hill, Regan is on a competitive cheerleading squad where she is a flyer and tumbler. She is also a Brownie Girl Scout. Regan would like to thank Mr. Adams and her family for always getting her to practices and for being there for her.

Skylar Watkins was in The Jungle Book a couple of years ago and returns this year as a townspeople. The third grader says she enjoys acting and that the plays are a lot of fun. Skylar also takes dance and Tae-Kwon-Do. Special thanks go to her Mom for letting her be in the play and also to her Tae-Kwon-Do master who brings her to practice on Mondays.
